1862 SOCIETY

The 1862 SOCIETY is the highest form of public recognition for private support given to NDSU. The society gets its name from the year Congress passed the Morrill Act, establishing America's land-grant universities. Membership in the society is accorded those who: (1) have made accumulated gifts totaling $1 million or more, (2) have made an outright gift of $1 million or more, or (3) have made a pledge to give $1 million or more.
